SKILLS AND GOALS

Please attach a one page cover letter (typed, double spaced) that addresses your interest and background in theater, and why you want to be an intern at Music Circus. Include any training and experience that you have had in the performing arts (e.g. camps, classes, dance, choir, school performances, church, and/or community theater). Your letter should also include your goals for the internship, including what would make this a successful internship. You may also include a resume.

If you are a high school student, under 18, a completed work permit application must be submitted with your internship application. Work permit applications may be downloaded from the California Musical Theatre website.

Please return application, with cover letter by April 6, 2018 to:
